Terms

To insure our lien rights all contractors, sub-contractors, owner-builders and any customer doing major construction will be required to furnish us the necessary information to complete our "California Preliminary Notice" on each job. The lien notice is NOT a reflection on the integrity of any customer, but to comply with "California Civil Code" sections 3097 and 3098. Forms should be acquired from the sales personnel.

The undersigned hereby submits the above true and complete information to establish credit. A signature hereon authorizes the above named financial institutions to furnish credit information to Frank R. Close & Son, Inc. and authorizes Frank R. Close & Son, Inc. to check credit and employment and to release credit information.

Charge accounts are maintained for your convenience and are due and payable within 10 days of billing. Our billing cycle runs from the 26th of the month to the 25th of the following month. Payments not received in our office by the 25th will be subject to a finance charge. It is understood that a delinquent account will cause credit to be suspended and an interest and service charge of 1.5% or less as permitted by law, will be assessed and indicated on the monthly statement.

Purchases and/or deliveries may be made without a signature.

If any legal action is instituted to collect amounts owing for the materials purchases or to recover material purchases, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover, in addition to all other damages, reasonable attorney's fees and collection costs.
